

Rice Creek Watershed District
Program Support Technician

The Rice Creek Watershed District (RCWD) is excited to announce an opening for Program Support Technician. The District is situated in the north Twin Cities metro and encompasses a diverse range of land uses from urban to rural. This position addresses District operations in Information Technology (IT), contracted technology services, and general administrative tasks, support for internal information technology function, coordination with the District information technologies consultant, manage technology services, vendor contracts, provide general website support, and complete administrative tasks. The ideal candidate will have certification of completion in Computer Electronic Technology/Computer Information Systems from an accredited educator or one-year experience with a Managed IT Service Provider. The salary hiring range is $49,987-$68,732 annually dependent on qualifications and experience, plus benefits. Please submit a cover letter, resume, and a signed copy of the private data notice to Theresa Stasica via email at tstasica@ricecreek.org or mailed to the Rice Creek Watershed District, 4325 Pheasant Ridge Drive NE, Suite 611, Blaine, Minnesota 55449 (763) 398-3070. The position is posted until filled; first review of submittals April 26, 2024. Please visit www.ricecreek.org for a full position description or to access a copy of the private data notice. The RCWD is an Equal Opportunity Employer.